

K-Love is a great alternative to regular radio programs the music is like those others but the lyrics are not offensive. Families can enjoy "Today's" music without the worry of what the lyrics are telling or suggesting to our young people.